

Module 5 Slope and Channel Protection Assignment

- 1) Identify several different slope categories on your construction evaluation site and propose suitable control practices for each type. Justify your selections with appropriate calculations.
- 2) Design an appropriate diversion swale, or a main drainage swale for your evaluation site. Using the previously calculated flow rates, select a suitable channel lining, including the consideration of check dams. Justify your selections with appropriate calculations.